DECLARATION IN SUPPORT OF FILING DATE LOST BY POSTAL INTERRUPTION

I, Mireya Villegas, deposited the above-identified patent application with the U.S. Postal Service in an Express Mail envelope on November 20, 2001. Included with the application was a Transmittal Letter, Specification and Claims totaling 14 pages, Executed Declaration, and Two (2) Postcards. These are herewith included with this re-submittal.

Enclosed is a "Pickup Service Statement" from U.S. Postal Service dated November 20, 2001, attesting to pickup of the above documents, identified by Label Number ET 506 464 867 US.

On November 26, 2001, I, Michele Trapp, received return of the above noted documents from the U.S. Postal Service with a form letter indicating these items could not be delivered because service was interrupted for delivery to Washington, D.C. Zip Code 20231 and adjacent zip codes.

All statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code, and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of this patent application or any patent issuing thereon.
